FOREWORD

In 1956 Mirja Loikkanen, from Finland, became the first exchange student to take up studies at Garden Grove Union High School. She will soon return to her native country after a year's stay here. The Argonaut staff thought it appropriate to organize the yearbook around moments in the 1955-1956 school year that Mirja and all other students will remember. The theme of the 1956 Argonaut is "Moments to Remember" and the dedication is to Mirja Loikkanen and the students and faculty of Garden Grove Union High School who accepted Mirja as a full-fledged member of the student body.

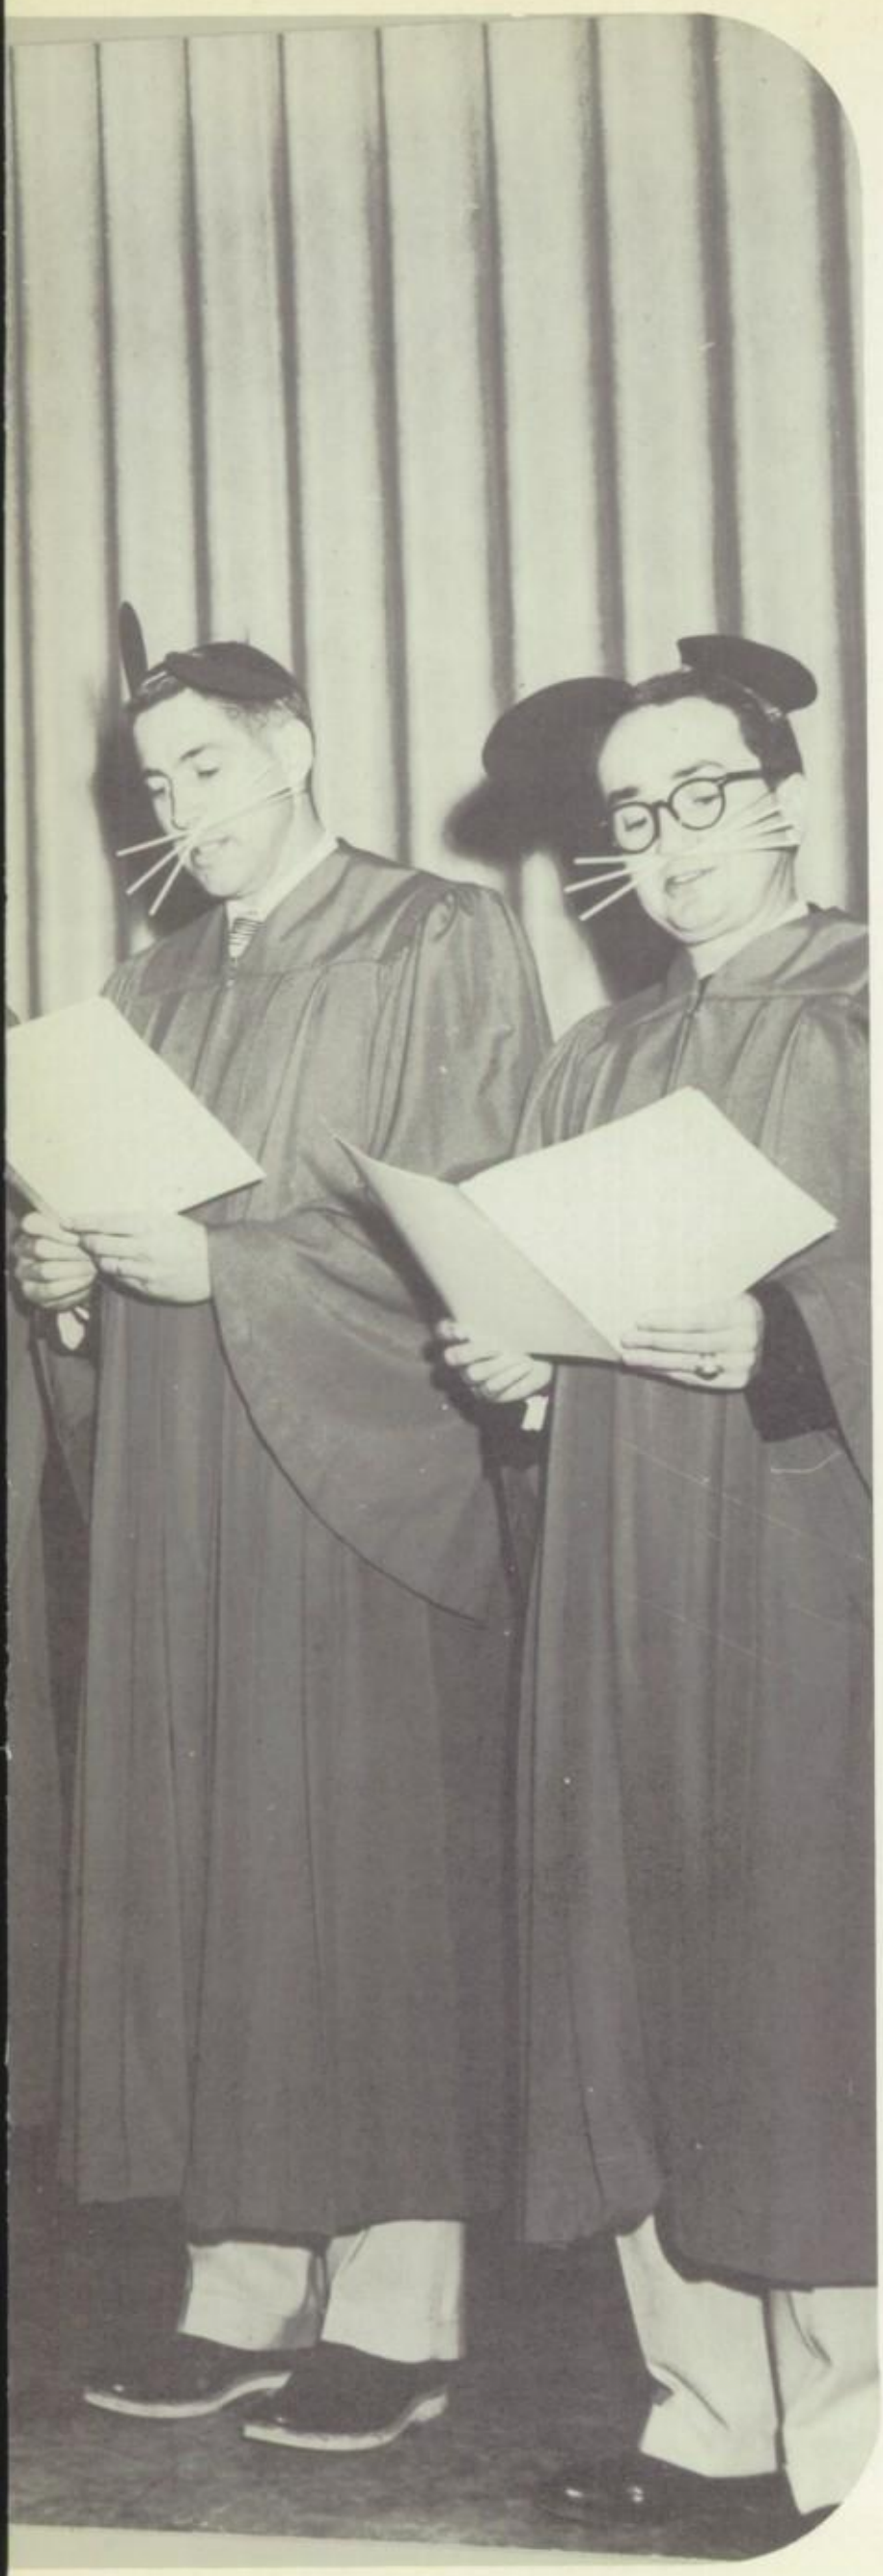
ADMINISTRATON



FRIENDLY ADMINISTRATORS AND TEACHERS ALWAYS LEFT THE DOOR OPEN TO STUDENTS FOR DISCUSSION OF PROBLEMS OR JUST AN INFORMAL CHAT.

SUPERINTENDENT

A member of the Garden Grove faculty for over 30 years, Dr. Leroy L. Doig has made outstanding contributions in the field of education. This year Dr. Doig no longer has the title of principal of the high school, devoting all of his time to the superintendency.

TRUSTEES

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES is the legislative and policy-making group of the school district. Elected by the public, the board serves to make and/or approve all regulations or policies affecting the school. Left to right, Mr. Marlin A. Mower; Mr. Lawrence Wood, president; Mr. William Wiesner, Mrs. Orestell Croswhite, clerk; Dr. Leroy Doig, superintendent; Mr. Willis Cadwallader.

PRINCIPAL

An outstanding educator for thirty years and the originator of the first agricultural department of in Orange County, Principal Donald S. Jordan has been at Garden Grove Union High School for twenty-seven years, ten of which have been in administrative work.

OFFICE PERSONNEL

Keeping the records straight was the task of the members of the business and office staffs. Budgets, students and school records, attendance, and similar jobs kept them busy throughout the year.

Mr. Kenneth Dungan
Business Manager

DISTRICT OFFICE staff members are, left to right, Mrs. Carolyn Ritter, administrative secretary; Mr. Harold Reynolds, business assistant; and Mrs. Blanche Conklin, bookkeeper.

PRINCIPAL'S OFFICE and attendance office personnel include (left to right) Mrs. Trudy Kollwitz, office secretary; Mrs. Roberta True, chief attendance secretary; Mrs. Edith Soest, attendance and health secretary; Miss Jeannine Peters, attendance secretary; and Miss Judi Wier, guidance secretary.

BUS DRIVERS

CUSTODIANS

Keeping the campus spic and span was a difficult job this year with over 2000 souls to clutter it up. The custodians and gardeners had a monumental task and were ever busy. Left to right: Pearly Hibbs, Charles McConnell, Bertha Collins, Dewight Lane, Chester Wilson, Hazel Clark, Louis Massa, Horace Davenport, Gus Howard, Lowell Phillip, Wendell Newsom, superintendent of buildings and grounds.

CAFETRIA STAFF

Serving hungry hordes each school day and for special events was the gargantuan task of the cafeteria staff. Tasty meals and snacks provided nourishment for hundreds of students and teachers.

Keeping the cafeteria running smoothly were, left to right, Sylvia Wendland, Birdie Umphress, Blanche Berry, Doris Yergler, cafeteria manager, Ruth Dugan, Lily Wheat, and June Oxenreider.

PUBLICATIONS

ARGONAUT STAFF...

Publishing a yearbook is a tremendous task. This year's ARGONAUT is the largest in the school's history, a fact which makes its punctual appearance truly a gargantuan feat. Much credit is deserved by the small staff, who together with their adviser, Mr. William F. Smith, made the distribution of this book possible.

Jeanne Enomoto
Editor-in-chief

ACTIVITIES

STEPPING UP WITH A FRESH APPROACH TO CO-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES WILL BRING PLEASANT MEMORIES IN FUTURE YEARS.

JUNIOR PLAY

"Mr. Barry's Etchings," the first dramatic production of the year, was presented by the Junior Class December 8 and 9. The three-act comedy, under the direction of Miss Beulah Gutel, was produced in the Girls' Gym with semi-central staging.

"You can have your old ring! It didn't fit anyway!" exclaims Evelyn to Marvin as Daisy and Mr. Crosby approve the action.

"We're running this town, Barry, and don't you try to interfere!" Mrs. Griswald threatens Judson, as Sam Jordan watches startled.

"Stick 'em up!" Judson orders Sawbuck and Fifty and Mrs. Taylor backs him up.

"I came to return this money," Bud tells Judson, while Mrs. Taylor gives him a dirty look.

SENIOR PLAY

"Dear Ruth," the senior play produced April 19 and 20, was in rehearsal when the ARGONAUT went to press. The cast is pictured here as they practiced the play, which was directed by Mr. Paul Vorkink.

"I'm not a child," Miriam (Stephanie Adams) says to Ruth (Carol Smith) and Lt. Seawright (Dick Montague), who seem to disagree.

"I'm not supposed to get excited," says Albert (Stefan Cummings, seated) to Edith (Carol Jones) and Harry (Lanny McCullah).

"Don't eat dem eggs," giggles Dora (Jeanne Enomoto) to Edith, Harry and Martha (Pat Hammel).

FACULTY PLAY

"Three's a Family," directed by William Carden, was presented by faculty members March 9 and featured central staging. Cast members not pictured included Donald Jordan, Blanche Conklin, Charles Thorp, and William F. Smith, William Hoganson had charge of properties.

"You'll have to wait your turn," Dr. Bartell (Nels Nelson, right tells Mrs. Franklin (Pat Knowlton). Mr. Franklin (Joseph Riedel) looks on, while maid (Mary King) examines doctor's "medicine."

"I'm making an adjustment; I'm leaving," Adelaide (Sarah Talbot, left) tells Mrs. Whitaker (Mary McClain) while Kitty (Barbara Dorman) looks on.

ASSEMBLIES

Much of the Argonaut spirit was displayed in the various pep and award assemblies held throughout the year. It would be impossible to picture every assembly; however, a sampling should be sufficient to recall them to mind.

Loyal Argonauts give a cheer during pep rally.

Student Body President Jim Dunivin presided over assembly activities.

Wedding skit was part of entertaining pep assembly.

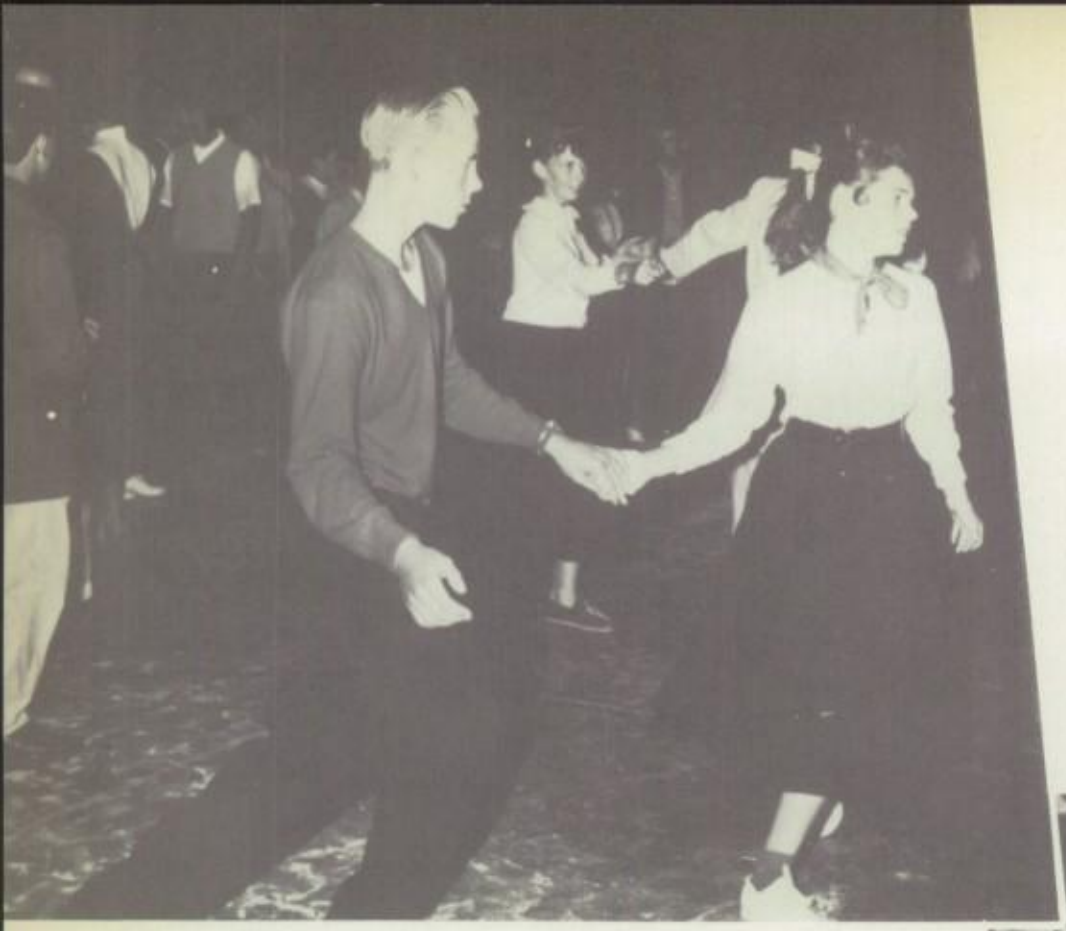
"HELLO DAZE"

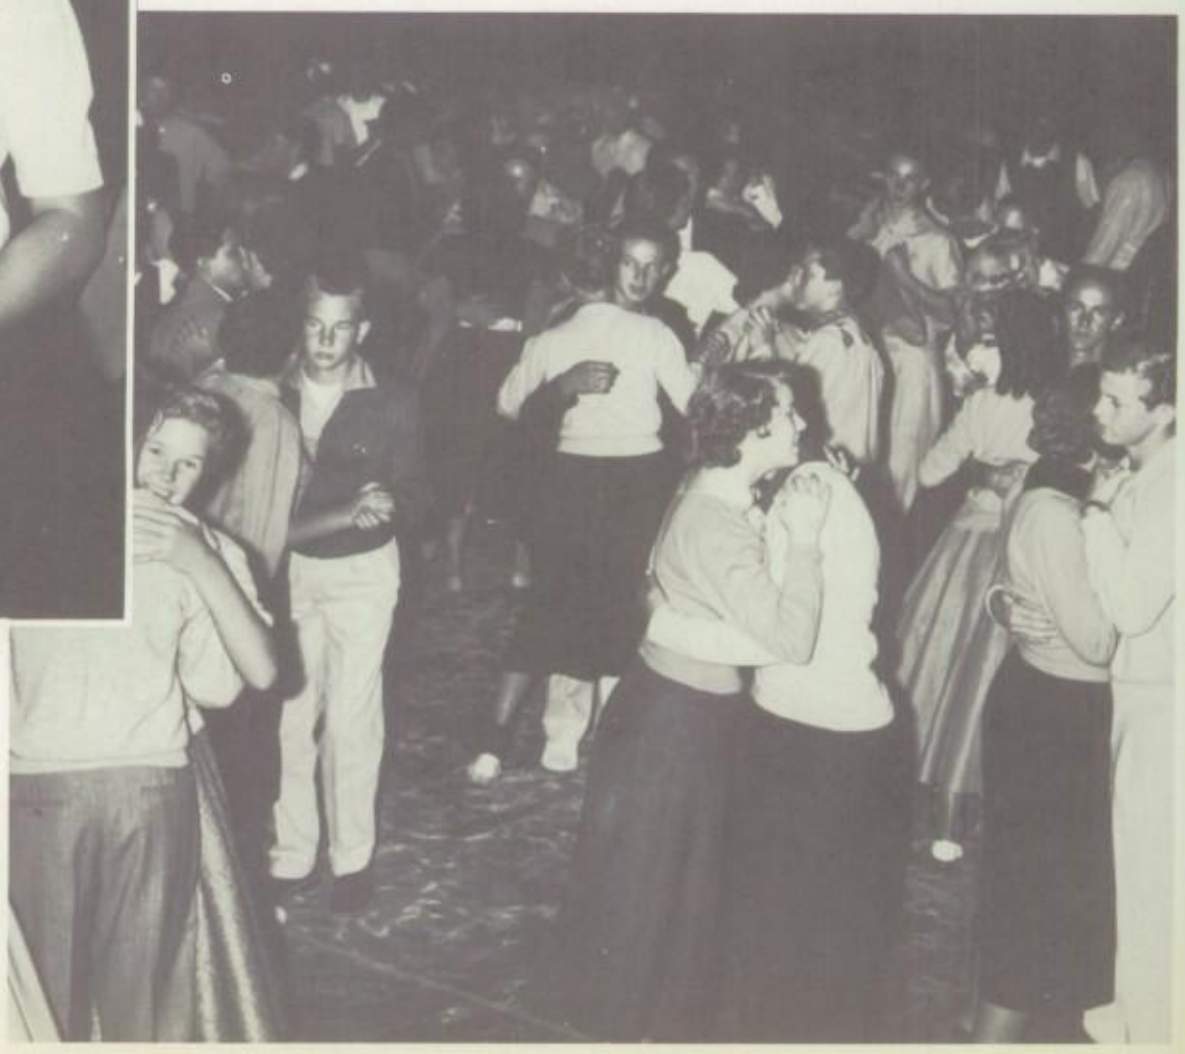
Designed to acquaint the freshmen with upperclassmen, "Hello Daze" is climaxed with a huge dance and the crowning of the king and queen, nominated by the ninth-graders, but elected by the sophomores. Over six hundred students crowded the Girls' Gym for the affair.



One couple finds room for some fancy steps.

Close dancing was a necessity because of the huge attendance.

King Cecil Hampton and Queen Judi Davis hold hands and cups.



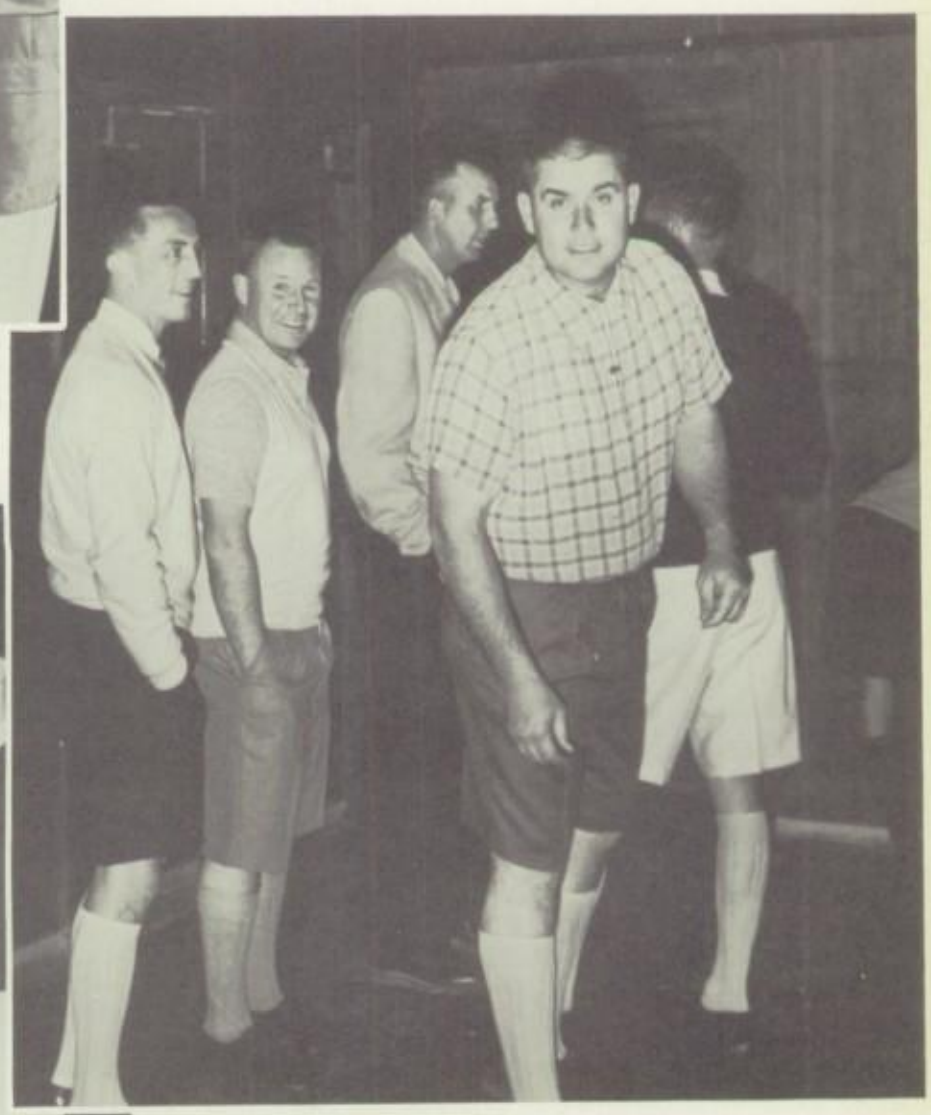
Slower dancing seemed to be the trend at the "Hello Daze."

"BERMUDA HOLIDAY"

"Bermuda Holiday," a dance sponsored by the Lettermen's Club, brought forth some strange apparel for both male and female. Brightly colored shorts and socks made the dance an outstanding affair. Even the chaperones dressed for the occasion.

Check those shorts!

Smiles and shorts were everywhere.



The coaches were very conservative!

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

Garden Grove High's music, drama, and dance groups combined for a Christmas spectacular in an afternoon double assembly in the Boys' Gym and an evening performance for the general public December 20. Highlight of the program was Fred Waring's arrangement of "Twas the Night Before Christmas," sung by the combined choral groups, under the direction of Mr. William Hoganson, incorporated with a dance interpretation by Mrs. June Adams' dance groups.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Entering its first year in Sunset League competition, the Argonauts were forced to take a cellar berth after completing league play with a one-win, five-loss record. The lone league victory was a narrow 14-13 win over Orange. Don Hosmun, George Allen, and Jim Dunivin, who was out of action because of an early season injury, were co-captains. The team was coached by Mr. Don Avery, Mr. Herbert Hill, and Mr. Gilbert Dear. Keith Montee and Don Hosmun were honored by being selected on the second squad of the all Sunset League team.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The 1956 Argonaut varsity played good basketball, but couldn't quite push in the few points that separated them from wins in several games. High point of the season was a 77-45 victory over the Anaheim Colonists. Gary Davis led the team, both as captain and high point man. Mr. Allen Wells coached the varsity, which ended the season tied for cellar position.

J. V. BASKETBALL

Winding up the 1956 hoop season with one win and eleven losses, Coach Mel Sothan's JV basketeers placed last in the highly competitive Sunset League. Standouts on the team were Delmar Farmer, Earl Clinton, and Bob Ballew with their constant outstanding playing.

"B" BASKETBALL

Coached by Mr. William Slingsby, the Argo "B" hoopmen made their initial debut in the Sunset League this year and had a rough go of it, ending the season with a 4 win-8 loss record. Standouts were Jim Semon, Ron Sisel, and Bob Gamboni, who were brought down from the JV team to aid the "B's" throughout league competition and were outstanding scorers.

Led by Captain Robert Yoshioka, the Argo "C" quintet finished their initial year in the Sunset League with an 8 win-4 loss record, the best of any Garden Grove High basketball team. The "Little Argonauts" lost to Anaheim and Fullerton twice each, but mowed down every other team in sight and provided many exciting moments such as Ernie Musseman's sinking a jump shot with less than a second left in an overtime period to beat Santa Ana, and Yoshioka's tying up that game in regulation time with a half-court push shot.

CROSS COUNTRY

Led by Coach Jack Schumaker, the Cross Country team placed third in the Sunset League. In the dual meets, the varsity lost only to Newport Harbor. Bob Cooper, number one man for the Argonauts, was quite consistent in his running and usually placed first. The Argos gained much respect from the other teams, both for their ability and their diligence.

You told me you owned a Cadillac!

Just sign the monitor's board, please!

And away we go . . .

What's Miss Garden Grove got that I haven't?

MISCELLANY

Many activities are not included in a yearbook because they occur after the annual is planned. The following two pages are designed to include some of these unexpected and unplanned-for activities.

Science award winners included (left to right) Norito Hasegawa, Ronald Chandos, Millie Davis, Bob Cooper, Joan Dowling, and Linda Clarke, who is holding her project for the others' inspection.

Buffums' representative explains the store's Young Careerist program. Anne Boylan was the local winner.

MISCELLANY

Other activities which did not find room in the originally planned ARGONAUT include the Math Marathon, Lions' Club Speech Contest, and Girls' League Mother-Daughter Fashion Show and Tea, which was held March 28.

Winners of the Math Marathon, sponsored by Mr. Carl Powell, are pictured above with judge Mr. Abraham Eidelson. Left to right, they are Bob Hollander, third place; Elizabeth Sackman, second place; and Robert Longden, first place.

Lions' Club Speech contestants display their trophies. Linda Jackson (center) won first place locally, and Allan Robinson and Joan Mayor tied for second place. Linda was a runner-up in the zone contest.

Sylvia Bell models striking costume at the Fashion Show.

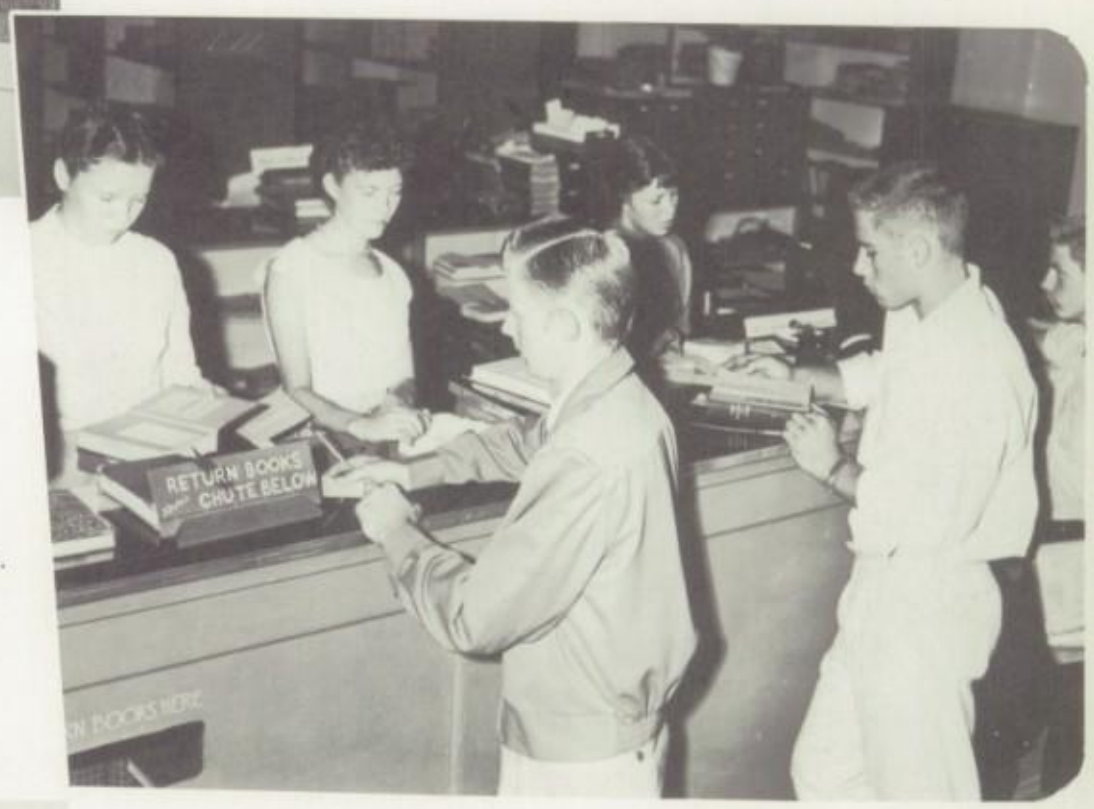
SNAPS AN'

Honest, I was really sick.



Oh, that's all right.
It's only three months overdue.

Noontime homework!

Hurry it up, Hector! I'm hungry.

A brief respite in the afternoon.

SCRIBBLES

Look who's eavesdropping!

Don't just stand there; get me out!

Lunchtime rendezvous

Just mark your ballot with an X.

Are you sure your wallet isn't here?

Look! He's going to take our picture.

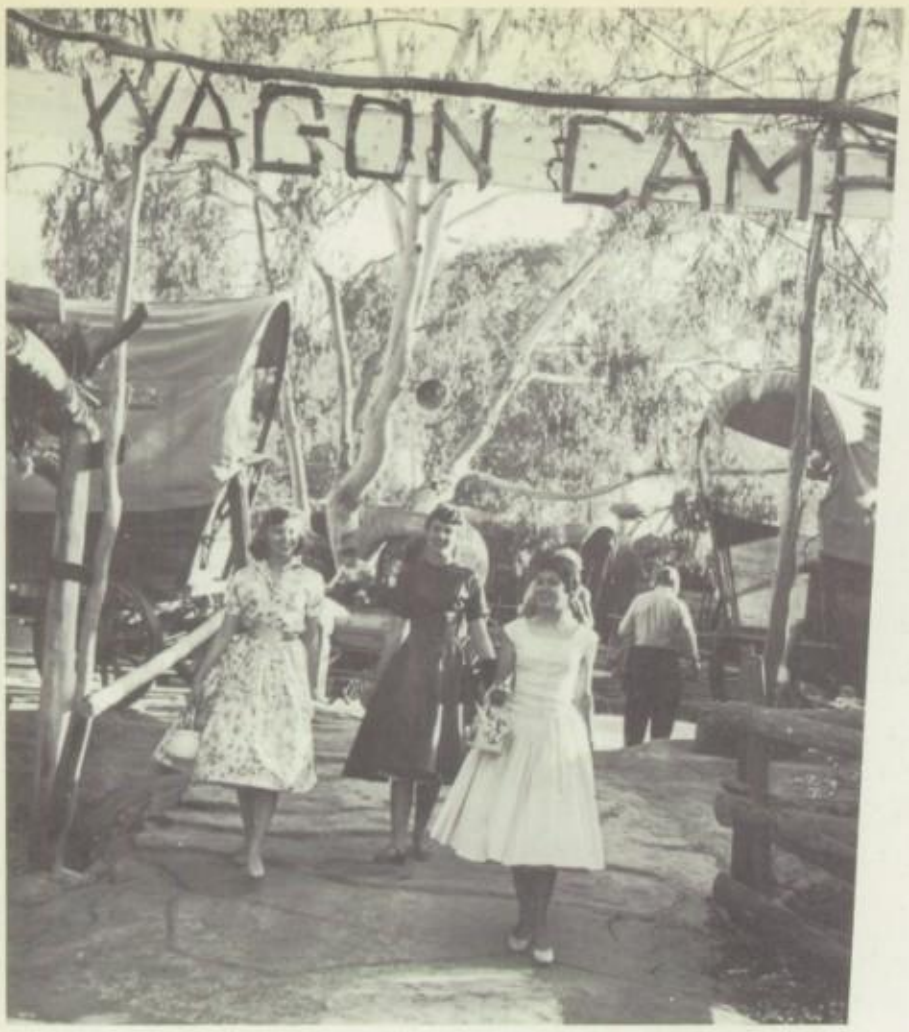
He's mine, I tell you!

Who's this guy Samson, anyhow?

Lend me a quarter, will ya?

Any dragons you want me to slay, honey?

I've a feeling something is creeping up on me.



"What a pleasant rustic setting!"

"Isn't that a cute one?"

THERE IS PLENTY TO SEE AND DO AT

KNOTT'S BERRY FARM AND GHOST TOWN

From Garden Grove take Garden Grove Blvd. to Highway 39, then north about 6 miles to the Farm.

PLEASANT MEMORIES . . .

The yearbook staff hopes that the 1956 ARGONAUT has fulfilled its purpose in preserving some moments in the 1955-56 school year that are worthy of remembrance. It is also hoped that when Mirja Loikkanen returns to Finland, a copy of this book will go with her and bring something of the American way of life to a country beyond the seas.
